WRAP UP OF WORLD EVENTS

The events which have changed our lives over the course of the last eventful year

By Brian Fitzgerald

Throughout the past four years there have been many earth-shattering events which have changed the course of our lives locally as well as on a worldly scale. Those events have been highlighted by a few outstanding incidents which have truly shaken our consciousness and touched all of us on a personal level.

In the spring of 1990, Nelson Mandela, a political prisoner and powerful leader of the people of South Africa was released from prison after a twenty five year detention. He had been jailed in 1965 for speaking out against apartheid, the white supremacist government of South Africa.

Another great episode in contemporary history occurred on October 3, 1990 when the once divided East and West Germany became united. The 100 mile long Berlin Wall was destroyed, and the two Germanies became one, giving the East Germans freedom to travel, to sample the treasures behind the West Germans had enjoyed for many years and to be exposed to capitalism.

On a less peaceful note, on August 2 of 1990, the U.S. became involved in a turmoil with the middle eastern country of Iraq. Iraq, trying to snatch up the country of Kuwait, the president of Saddam Hussein, was holding Americans hostage, forcing the U.S. with no other choice but to become militarily involved.

The ramifications of these experiences will undoubtedly be felt by we, the people of today as well as generations to come.

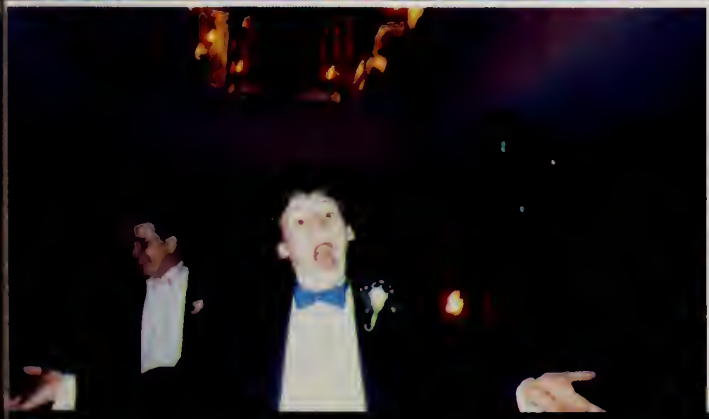
Junior Prom

"This is the Time To Remember"
April 6, 1990

Our first prom, was quite a memorable one for all those who attended. Although the forecast called for snow, it turned out to be a beautiful Friday night. "This is the Time to Remember" (by Billy Joel) was the theme song, and it was held at the Park Plaza 57th Restaurant. The main course consisted of prime rib, candied carrots, potatoes and green beans. Mr. Carino and friends provided the lively beat for the evening, not to forget the wonderful balloon arrangements by the Balloon Tycoon. All the toilsome hours of primping and prepping were paid off with an extravegant evening for all.



The Wizard of Oz

The very popular movie musical, The Wizard of Oz came to life on the Stoneham High School Auditorium stage in the Spring of 1990. Children from every school in town were in the cast and of every age in the audience. A collaboration between Ms. Sampson and Ms. Thayer, the show was a financial success and fun for all.

LOCAL NEWS WAS DOMINATED BY THE BUDGET CRISIS THAT THREATENED MANY SCHOOL PROGRAMS. STUDENTS ELOQUENTLY DEFENDED THE SYSTEM BEFORE THE FINANCE ADVISORY BOARD. AARDU THE WALLABY MADE THE NEWS FOR ESCAPING THE STONE ZOO AND ELUDING CAPTURE FOR SEVERAL DAYS. GOVERNOR DUKAKIS VISITED THE HIGH SCHOOL ON BEHALF OF HIS GOVERNOR'S ALLIANCE AGAINST DRUGS.

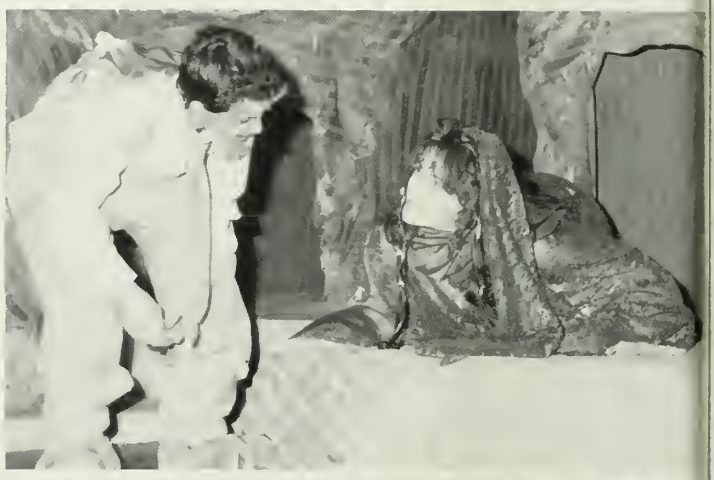
The Hobbit

In the fall of 1990, the SHS Drama Club performed The Hobbit for the Senior Class play.

A large number of Seniors were involved in the production of this show, both in the cast and crew. Andrea Clark, Jennifer Ioanna, Danielle Silva, Elizabeth Fowler, Jennifer McCabe, Alex Romanos, Michael Ahrens, Shawn DeHart, Gil Feke, Linda Jackson, ColleenCann, ChristinaZizza, Danielle Ciampa and Rick Hansonwere among those Seniors in the production. Along with younger members of the Drama Club, they succeeded in creating a wonderful fantasy show. This was a very successful show due to both the time and effort all the people involved invested and to the fun had by all. The response f the audiences assured the greatness of the production.



Dedication

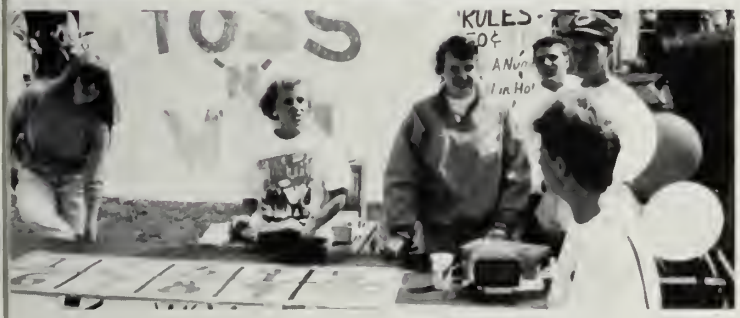
On this page, we would like to take the time to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Scanell. Through our four years here at SHS, it is safe to say that probably every student from our class has worked with Mr. Scanell to some extent. Whether it be a class in photography, art, theater arts or through Carnival Ball, he has been a great teacher and influence to us all; Especially this year in Yearbook . Mr. Scanell has always shown a genuine interest in our class, and it is clear that he truly cares for us. From the Class of 1991, thank you Mr. Scanell !

TABLE

SpringFest 1990

Stoneham High held the first annual Springfest on May 25, 1990. It was organized and operated by the students and staff of the school. It consisted of food, games and a wide variety of muscial entertainment. There were festivities for all ages with such attractions as hairbraiding, earthball, the dunk tank, raffles and many prizes. Financially, Springfest surpassed all of our expectations and grossed thousands of dollars, all of which were donated to various charities.

Town Day



This year, as in the past, Town Day turned out to be a great succlss. Students from the High School participated in the all day festivities, along with faculty and businesses and clubs in the community. Town Day enabled thl diffirent groups in the high school to raise funds and promote their cause. It was a questionable start with all of the rain which we recieved, but as the day proceeded, the sun emerged to brighten lveryone's day. Overall, people slemed to be enjoying themselves eating the sausages and peppers, fried dough, cookies, cotton candy and of course cold slushes to wash it all down with (sold by none other than the Senior class!). It was an excellent time for all who attended and participated.

Apple Picking Day

Although we got there a few hours too early (Thanks Jon !), we made the best of it. It was a time for everyone in the class to be together. Football games were started, walks were taken, sunbathers bathed and the hungry went to McDonalds! So anyway, they did let us in early, and up the mountain we trudged. It was great rolling down the hills and climbing the trees. Then, shortly after the apples began flying, we did get kicked out, but it made it more fun . All things considered, it was a great time to remember because the class was united as one.

The team qualified for the State Tournament but missed the cut by three strokes. Captain Dave Tropeano was MVP of the league and was joined on the All-Star team by Rob Oteri. At the opening of the 1990-91 season the hopes of the Sparten Basketball team was sky high. Behind the leadership of captains Eric Marharfer and Ryan Svendsen, the team turned a few heads in the Middlesex League by pulling off a couple of remarkable victories over Watertown and Wakefield. The shooting of sophomore Ed Hurley proved vital in several of the teams wins, as the Spartans ended up with a respectable record. Seniors Paul DeLuca, Joe sarno, James Foy, and Brian Fiztgerald played key roles iover the 20 game stretch, and the underclassmen showed great improvement throughout the season. The future of S.H.S. hoop seems to be looking up as Coach Killilea sets his sights for a tournement birth in the future.

Hockey

Sean Quinlan

The 1990-91 Hockey team was a team with great ambition. This season was full of many close games , mostly ties, but if they lost they did not lose by many goals. The team was led by Captain Dave Tropeano, who retained his All-Star form from last year. A very key person on the team was the first year goalie Kevin Frost. He kept many games close with great saves. Other key senior members included Artie Ashton, Sean Quinlan, Jamie Van Loon, John Ward, and Bill Armsden. In his first year Coach Carr had many young players on his team that the team loved to play for.

The boys track team had a successful season this year. They had many key elements that helped them achieve this status. Some of the key elements included the spectacular running of Jay Rogers, and the great shot putting of Eric Del Vecchio who was the best in the league. Many other people helped with this winning season and should be given as much credit. The team finished fourth in the state meet and second in the relays.The hard work that the team has put in to there season has paid off, and the their great season should also be attributed to the tough workouts that Coach Powers has given them.

The 1990-91 Girls Track team ended up with a winning record despite the small number of participants. With a record of 6-2-1, they finished third in the league. They also stayed competitive state wide, by placing third in the Class C state meet. Mr. Rocher should get a lot of praise for his excellant coaching. The team should also be proud of themsevles also because with the low turnout of participants the team had to do more events.

Twirp & Semiformal

In our Freshman and Sophomore years, we experienced for the first time the thrill of a semi-formal dance. Freshman year, it was known as the Twirp, and when we were Sophomores, it was changed to the Semiformal. They were nights of fun that started off the memories of high school.

Memories . . .

Michele, what was your most memorable weekend?

" My greatest weekend had to be the time when a bunch of us went up to Gagne's cottage in New Hampshire. We did a lot of swimming, the guys fished in the rain, and we played lots of volleyball. But the funniest thing had to be when Mr. Gagne had just finished fixing the door that Dave busted through, and then Jon, being the graceful person that he is, decided to plow right through the door, after saying, ' Don't worry guys, I see it..'." -Michele Peters

Dan, tell us, what was the most memorable party that you've been to?

" The most memorable party that I've been to, had to be Gabe's 18th birthday bash , at Mark's house on November 17th, 1990. Everybody was there, and I mean EVERYBODY. There was some friction from the Babson crew, led by James 'Booger' Augar, and some of the locals. Some ran for the closet (Mike), and some out the windows (Dave), and some went crashing through the windows. The Keystone cops were not of any assistance. But other than that, it was a pretty quiet night. " -Dan "California Dreamer" Santamaria

Mike, what was your most memorable camping trip?

" Well, It must have been that time with our 10th grade Bio class, when we conquered the rugged terrain of Mt. Washington, led by the fearless Mr. Mayo. You know, I'll never forget when we put up our tent with nothing but rope, ingenuity, the basic priniples of geometry, and a will to survive. And I can't forget the disappointment we felt as we reached the top, to discover nothing more than a snack bar. Great tunes and golf expertise were supplied by Mr. Kennedy. We also had a great relaxing swim in the cold, leech infested waters of that river. And how 'bout that Pizza Pub? 'So how many dozen donuts should we get Mr. Mayo? ' ." -Mike McHenry

On January 16, 1991, war broke out in the Persian Gulf. This war could have a major effect on the graduating class because if it lasts long enough, some members of the Class of '91 may actually have to go fight. Several students were asked how they felt about the War, and these are their responses...

" I support the War. Saddam must be stopped now, instead of several years from now. We can't use appeasements with Saddam like we did Hitler." -Cynthia Fabiano

" I support the War. I'd go over and fight, and if you don't go and fight, you're not an American. Too many people take Freedom for granted...." -Ed Cotter

"" I don't know. I don't know what to think yet. " -Artie Mazmanian

" First of all, War is never good. But in a situation like thjis there is not much else you can do. I am not pro-War, but if I get drafted, I'll be right behind my country. " -Todd Santos

" War sucks. Peace in the Middle East. " -Alicia Paresi

" Something has to be done now. " -Jen rutkowski

" The whole war effort is for the rich people, and we must remember it is not the soldiers' fault. " -Gabe Aguilar
